Dear Mr. Yates:

About a year ago I wrote you about how many of your constituents felt what a bad shape the country was in and of their discouragement. Of course things have only gotten worse, bordering on the tragic.

With as many un-employed underemployed needy, I read this stupid, stupid letter. The President and Congress have accomplished nothing in the last six months, things are getting worse by the day. People in need have to wait six weeks for food stamps, welfare or their un-employed checks.

Congress should have overhauled and reformed the tax structure twenty years ago. You are a failure and our system is nothing but yes, as much or more like than what the Russians or Chinese must tolerate.

Now, I believe violence is the only answer. Assassination of executives and Congressmen would be a God-send

- Q1 Envelope bearing the handwritten address, "Sidney R. Yates Chicago District office Room 1826, Federal Bldg. 219 S. Dearborn St Chicago, Ill. 60604"
- Q2 Sheet of ruled paper bearing the handwritten message, "About a year ago I wrote you about how many of your Constituents felt..."

Result of examination:

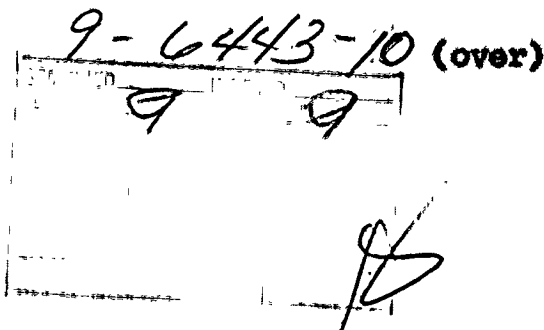

Q1 and Q2 were searched through the appropriate sections of the Anonymous Letter File with negative results. Representative photographs of these items have been added to this file.

No indented writing of value, watermarks, or other extraneous marks of value were noted on the submitted specimens that would aid in determining their origin.

Because of limited comparable handwriting and a few unexplained handwriting variations, it was not definitely concluded whether the questioned writing on Q1 and Q2 was or was not authored by [redacted]
